"No Compromise With Dishonor!"

GOEBEL'S defiant war cry, "I intend to be Governor," played no little part in the bloody drama at Frankfort.

THE Goebelites appear to be "grossly outraged" because of the presence of the militia at Frankfort. 'Twas always thus; none but law-breakers have reason to fear the military power.

THE assassination of Senator Goe-BEL should not cause the people to forget that popular suffrage has been assassinated by the Democratic mem-bers of the Kentucky Legislature.

the exit of the ball was less than two inches below the horizontal line of the entrance, they cannot longer stand by their former assertions—but won't give up their pretended belief that Governor TAYLOR was an accomplice—and they now drop two stories and locate the assassin on the first floor of the Exassasin on the first floor of the Ex-ceutive Building, and say as the vic-tim walked his right side perhaps was thrown a little higher than the left; thus they try to account for the slight slant in the course of the ball. The same slant in the course of the ball through the body would have been shown had be been shot from the West side of the Capitol grounds. An assassin seldom shoots his vic-tim from the front, and it is much more difficult to hit a moving object coming toward you, when you are

The fact that the hole in the victim's back was small and smooth, while the hole in the breast was large and jagged, is almost conclusive proof that the ball was fred from behind Mr. GOEBEL, and could not possibly have e from any part of the Executive

Many of the wild theories that have been advanced and the unjut accusations that have been directed against the Republican officials will probably be corrected when the passions of the people cool down and a geaunie num for the real assassin begins.

As-suming that the Electoral Commis-sion of the state of Kentucky had desuming that the Electoral Commis-sion of the state of Kentucky had de-cided that Mr. Gorant. had been elected Governor and had given him his commission to that effect, no power on earth could, or would, have influenced him to resign his position nor to fail to firmly maintain the dignity of his title.
